Dear Colleague,

You are cordially invited to attend the launch of the 2013 National Integrity System Assessment to be conducted by Transparency International New Zealand in partnership with the Office of the Auditor General and numerous other members and partners.

Join us in celebrating 100 years of the Public Service Act on 13 November, 2012. Help New Zealand achieve another 100 years of world leadership.

The quality and credentials of speakers, chairs and facilitators for this event demonstrates how seriously this assessment is being taken. Their experience and expertise combine to provide a comprehensive programme for initiating the national conversation. Will you be at the starting line?
